Action Points: The Promise of Pentecost

- Ps Jon Cathie 15/6/2025

Key thought: Today we look at the Day of Pentecost – the powerful infilling of the Holy Spirit. In Acts 1:4-8 we read that Jesus commanded His disciples to wait for this promise of power from on high. To have the promise of His power, we need the prerequisite of His presence.

With this in mind, here are some Action Points:

1. Ps Jon shared that we tend to turn the power of the Holy Spirit into an instantaneous fix when we should be living a day-by-day fullness in the Spirit. How can we develop a daily dependence on the Holy Spirit?
2. All Christian churches, whether orthodox or contemporary celebrate Pentecost Sunday. What does this tell us about the significance of the Holy Spirit in our church expression?
3. Why should we seek to be filled with the Holy Spirit with the evidence of speaking in tongues?
